PDG Douglas W. Vincent

Rotary United Nations Representative, Zone 24
D7080 COL and CRCID Representative,
Humanitarian Missions Chair

Doug is a Charter Member and Past President of his club in Woodstock, Ontario with 32 years perfect attendance. As a third generation graduate of his family's successful farm equipment business, he is now an international advisor on harmony and communications in family business corporations.

As a past part-time Police Commissioner, he serves as a Federal RCMP (Royal Canadian Mounted Police) Advisor and is on the Ontario Police Review Committee (OIPRD). He is also an honorary "Colonel" in the Philippine National Police, recognizing his role promoting global understanding and world peace.

Doug's introduction to Rotary came as a GSE team member to Australia. Subsequently, he was a Team Leader to the Philippines and since then has travelled the world on Rotary humanitarian aid activities. He is currently District COL (Council on Legislation) and Zone 24 United Nations Representative.

Doug is involved in Rotary Foundation programs at all levels. He is a Benefactor, Major Donor, multiple Paul Harris Fellow and has received several Leadership and Appreciation Awards, including: an R.I. President's Citation, District and Zone Service Awards, Four Avenues of Service Citation and RI's prestigious Service Above Self award. Most recently, he was recognized as a distinguished Canadian with a special Queen Elizabeth Diamond Jubilee Medal.

Through his Rotary assignments and global activities, Doug's contribution is well known and he is often called Rotary's "Roving Ambassador." He is known as a prolific writer, professional speaker, founding Co-Chair of the global Rotary Peace Community program and a Rotary Foundation Cadre Advisor.

In the words of Past RI President Frank Devlyn, "Doug Vincent is a soft spoken Canadian, who can see the things that need to be done. Then he has the ability to create awareness and take the necessary action. He is an excellent example for us all to follow."
